

WHOOOP! DO ME NO HARM, GOOD MAN

(Song mentioned in Shakespeare's Winter's Tale as part of the wares of Autolycus the Pedlar.)

Andante.

The musical score is written for a single voice in treble clef, with a key signature of two flats (B-flat and E-flat) and a 3/4 time signature. The tempo is marked 'Andante.' The score consists of five staves of music, each with a line number (1, 7, 14, 20, 26) at the beginning. The lyrics are written below the notes. The melody is simple and folk-like, with a mix of quarter, eighth, and half notes. The lyrics tell a story of a man and a woman, with a 'Whoop!' at the end of each line.

The sweet pre -ty Jin -ny sat on a hill, When John -ny the swain her see; He tun'd his quill and sang to her still, Whoop!
Jin -ny come down to me. But she sang, But she sang,
But she sang to him -O do me no harm. So there on the hill She sang to him still, Whoop! do me no harm, good man.
